A PATRIOTIC ODE, BY & B.

Has turned all hearts to one pulsation; We're one, and every man a hero, Too proud to stoop to bloody Nero. "You can subjugate us, meer, God and Liberty forever!"

Hundreds by thousands o'er the border, Thirsting for blood, await your order, With fire, and sword, and cannon's thunder, To murder, desolate, and plunder. "You can subjugate us, never ! God and Liberty forever!"

Each cherished home, each olty-village, You darkly doom to sack and pillage; Each mother, sister, wife, and daughter-To deepest infamy and slaughter, "You can sujugate us, never! God and Liberty forever!"

Your hordes invade our Southern NATION, Their errand-spoils and subjugation ; We've heard your threat, but do not fear it, Our answer this -proud tyrant, hear it! " You can subjugate us, never ! God and Liberty forever f" From old Virginia round to Texas,

One soul pervades all ages sexes; Our men and boys are daily drilling, With patriot hearts, brave, true, and willing "You can subjugate us, never ! God and Liberty and forever!"

Though "rebels," "traitors," and "ecceders,"— Our fathers' Guide will guide our leaders; In God's high name, who hates oppression We plant the banner of excession. "You can subjugate us, never ! God and Liberty forever!"
